All Voters Reregister This Year

Intense Activity in Politics Looms Ahead for the Year 1930

City, County, State and Nation Will Select New Officials

With a year of intense political activity looming ahead, in the local, county, state and national fields, it behooves Sierra Madrans to comply with the requirements of the registration laws if they expect to have a voice in choosing the new officials.

Under the existing arrangement all registrations automatically expired December 31, 1929, whether voters changed residence or not. Everyone must re-register at least thirty days before the election date. An initiative petition is to be placed on the November, 1930, ballot asking that this biennial registration system be supplanted by a permanent system of registration whereby one would not have to re-register unless he moved to another place.

W. M. Kerr, county registrar of voters, has appointed two local deputies to assist him. Mrs. J. A. Stimpfing will work the city west of Baldwin, and Miss Grace Davis will work east of Baldwin. They started to register voters on January 2 and will be limited to their own territory throughout the month but may go anywhere in the county after January.

No person may cast a ballot in any of the elections unless he has properly registered with one of the above named officials or at the city hall with the clerk, at least 30 days prior to the date set for the election. The local elections will be held April 14; the primaries on August 26, and the general election on November 4.

Here in Sierra Madre, the voters will be asked to select a city clerk and three councilmen. Elmer A. Green was appointed only to fill the office of clerk until the next election period as required by law. Councilmen Reavis, Layton and Lees were appointed to fill out the unexpired terms of their predecessors all of which end this year.

In order to vote for a party candidate at a primary election, it is necessary by law to state one's party affiliation. The requirements for voters are that they must be citizens of the United States, must have lived in the State for one year, and in the county 90 days.

Some very important offices in the county, state and nation are to be filled this year, such as supervisor, assemblymen, governor and United States Congressmen.

Merchants Select Davies and Craig As New Officers

The Sierra Madre Retail Merchant's Credit Association held their first meeting since November at the Park Club House Monday evening with a fair turnout in spite of the rainy weather.

By a unanimous vote of those present, Robert Davies and W. E. Craig were recommended to Joe R. Eastwood, president of the Chamber of Commerce, for the positions of president and secretary respectively of the Merchant Association for the current year. Mr. Davies has served faithfully and efficiently as secretary for the past year.

The eats committee consisted of W. E. Craig and Tom Tyler who served cheese and apple pie. The coffee was strong enough to take care of itself, for Albert Wheeling stated that he had the interest of the organization so at heart that he did not sleep a wink all night.

GIVES UP POSITION WITH SIERRA MADRE BANK

E. W. Forbes, who has been calling on Sierra Madre citizens recently as a representative of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank, has been compelled to relinquish his position on account of illness in his family.

Nine members of the bridge club were to have attended a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Hugo Carlson at San Clemente yesterday, but the party was postponed due to the weather, and will probably be held next week.

READERS OF 'NEWS' TESTIFY TO THEIR FULL APPRECIATION

That the Sierra Madre News is serving well its purpose of supplying its readers with clean, up-to-date, unbiased reading matter is evidenced by two distinct facts that have come to the attention of the publishers since the first of the year.

First, there have been 17 NEW subscriptions added to the list since January 1, or an average of one each day during the new year so far. Second, the readers of this paper evidently consider that they are getting their money's worth for they are paying for their subscriptions, right up to date in 95 per cent of the cases. A good suggestion, it might be added, for starting the year aright!

E.A. Reynolds Passes Away Unexpectedly

Charming Personality Wins Many Friends to Mourn His Death

Edward A. Reynolds, aged 46 years, passed away very suddenly Thursday evening, January 9, at his home, 271 Sturtevant Road. His sister, Miss Cassie Reynolds, who made her home with him was with her brother at the time of his death.

A rosary service was conducted by Father Hyacinth at the Sierra Madre Funeral Chapel at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, and immediately afterward Miss Cassie Reynolds accompanied the body to New York City where burial was held.

Edward A. Reynolds was a native of New York City where he leaves one brother, Thomas A. Reynolds, who is president of The National City Bank of New York, one of the largest banking institutions in the world. He is also survived by another sister besides Miss Cassie.

Mr. Reynolds had lived in Sierra Madre only a year and a half, but due to a most charming personality which drew all to him with whom he came in contact, he leaves a host of friends to deeply mourn his passing.

He had been in his usual state of good health all day Thursday and had made several trips down town. He was sitting by the fire place reading a magazine when his sister saw his head suddenly drop to one side and death apparently followed instantly. Dr. Krebs was summoned and pronounced his death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. He had been suffering from high blood pressure for some time.

Both Mr. and Miss Reynolds loved Sierra Madre devotedly and had been planning a trip back East next summer but confidently expected to return here again to make their home. They occupied the "Burns Cottage" on Sturtevant Road where their many friends had frequent occasion to enjoy their kind hospitality.

Ten Jewish Girls Organize Social And Charity Club

Ten Jewish girls of Sierra Madre and vicinity met Friday night at the home of Miss Frances Becker at 213 North Hermosa avenue for the purpose of organizing a social and charity club. The probable name of the club will be the Hadasah Buds of Sierra Madre.

The following officers were elected: President, Marion Kravetz; vice-president, Cecelia Cutler; secretary, Esther Silverman; treasurer, Frances Hirschberg.

Meetings will be held every Friday at the homes of the club members. Several more girls will be taken into membership if they will communicate with one of the officers or club members.

Mrs. Franklin Swift will preside at the meeting following the luncheon and Miss Lucile Day, who has spent some years as missionary in Turkey and had a most interesting experience at Broussa, will be the speaker. It is urged that those who plan to attend make reservations for the luncheon early, with Mrs. J. M. Campbell, Black 21.

Travel Talk To Be Heard By Kiwanis

Ladies' Night Banquet and Entertainment Next Tuesday Eve.

Dennis H. Stovall, Former Resident Here, Delights Meeting

Elaborate preparations are under way for the celebration of the third anniversary of the presentation of the charter to the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club with a banquet for members and their ladies to be held next Tuesday evening at 6:45 in the Woman's Club House.

The after-dinner speaker will be McClellan Reed, well known lecturer and writer of Pasadena, who gave such an excellent talk before the club here recently. His topic this time will be based upon his experiences in Europe, especially in Spain. This same address has been given before other service clubs and has won great favor, it is said. There will be musical numbers and other entertainment provided.

Charles B. Klunk conducted the first meeting of his term as president this Tuesday noon and everything indicates a very successful year. The members appeared full of enthusiasm and clever repartee was kept up throughout the preliminary session. Rev. A. O. Pritchard led the singing with excellent results.

The address of the day was given by Dennis H. Stovall, now an executive secretary of the Boy Scouts in South Pasadena, but who formerly was a resident of Sierra Madre. He related the story of one of his own books, "Billy the Kid," which was published just last November and already has had a sale of more than 50,000 copies through the Woolworth stores.

Mr. Stovall was raised in the cattle country of the Southwest where the actual facts of the story took place, and he related the incidents with a fascinating manner that bespoke first-hand acquaintance with his subject matter, as well as an inherent ability to hold an audience with intense interest.

Milton Steinberger, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, was reported somewhat improved but not able to receive callers. James Heasley is taking his place at the Standard Service Station.

The meeting of the board of directors was postponed from Tuesday evening to Friday evening of this week due to a conflict of dates with St. Rita's card party. The meeting will be held at the home of President Chas. B. Klunk.

Buddy Walsworth Improves Nicely; At Home in Cast

"Buddy" Walsworth, who suffered a broken thigh several weeks ago and has been confined to the Pasadena Hospital for a long time, is now home and apparently improving nicely after the operation which was found necessary to set the fractured bones.

"Buddy" was delighted to get back where he could see his little playmates again and from six to two dozen of them are there every afternoon after school, Mr. Walsworth says. Apparently these visits do "Buddy" no harm for the day is quite tedious when one is fixed up in a plaster cast that covers his entire leg and part of his body.

This cast will have to be worn for about six weeks longer, and then "Buddy" expects to be out playing again.

City Lets Pump Bid To Byron Jackson Co. at Cost of $3477

At a special meeting of the city council Friday night, a contract for a new deep turbine and equipment for Well No. 1 was let to Byron Jackson Company of Los Angeles. The cost, $3477.

Bids for the pump were opened January 3 and placed in the hands of Earl J. Lynde, city engineer, for checking and report. The bid submitted by the successful bidder was for $3773.50 with an allowance of $296.50 for the old pump. The company agrees to complete the work of installation within five days of signing the contract.

Building Shows Steady Increase Throughout 1929

Despite the belief that there is a general financial depression all over the country and that real estate is very quiet, still facts and figures at the local city hall show that Sierra Madre made a slight but general gain in the building permits taken out all during 1929.

The year's total, according to Building Inspector Earl J. Lynde, was $155,030 for 1929 which shows an increase of $20,873 over the previous year.

With the bonds voted for a new school building to cost between $150,000 and $200,000, and the strong prospect for a $100,000 theatre and drive-in market to be built here soon, the year of 1930 should make a record very pleasant to contemplate and furnish work for many laborers as well as a nice payroll to be passed around.

Round-Up Nets City 100 Bucks

Fire-Chief Plays Lone Hand Against Five Mexicans —AND WINS

A general battle among five Mexicans in the rear of 30 Windsor Lane about 2:30 o'clock last Saturday morning, resulted in the enrichment of the city treasury by $100 and placed the name of W. D. Richards, local fire chief and special night police, forever on the record of heroes.

One of the residents in the vicinity of the battle sector phoned the city hall that such a commotion was going on near her home that no one could sleep. Bill Richards, always used to responding to alarms quickly, happened to be alone at that time, but he did not hesitate in doing his duty.

Richards rushed over to the scene of trouble, rounded up single handed at the point of a gun, the gang of Mexicans, who showed signs of having looked too long upon wine which was red, and marched them all over to the city hall, where they were kept in jail until court convened that morning.

Enos Sanchez, 169 Grove Street, and Max Griego and Arthur Hains, of 30 Windsor Lane, all pleaded guilty to the charge of disturbing the peace and paid fines of $25 each rather than spend twenty-five days in jail. Visente Varela, 45 North Lima, and Frank Romero, 169 Grove, both pleaded "not guilty" and were tried Monday morning, Jan. 13, when Judge Lassater found Varela guilty and assessed the same $25 as the others paid. Romero was released, however, for he proved to the satisfaction of the judge that he had just arrived on the scene a few minutes before the arrest, and had come after Sanchez, who lives with him.

Only a few drops of wine were found in the glass jugs lying around the place, according to Chief Gordon G. McMillan. Considerable furniture was smashed, however, and the participants suffered "minor abrasions and contusions," professionally speaking.

'Overtones' by Oscar Rasbach Is Now on Sale

"Overtones," by Oscar Rasbach, has just been published and placed on the market by Schirmer Publishing Co. of New York, author's advance copies having recently been received by Mr. Rasbach.

This song, while in manuscript, was included by Mr. Donald Thayer, who recently returned with his family from New York, at his Boston and New York recitals, and he stated that it was well received and encores demanded. "Overtones" was sung for the first time on April 30 of last year when Mr. Thayer appeared in recital at the Woman's Clubhouse.

BUSINESS LICENSE FEES EXCEED LAST YEARS
Business license fees collected by the city of Sierra Madre since the first of the year totaled $898 up to noon Thursday, according to Gordon G. McMillan, chief of police, under whose department this work comes. The total for the entire month of January last year was only $764, Mr. McMillan states.

Mountains Attractive To Hikers

Heaviest Snowfall In Many Years Reported from The Camps

Waters Back of Big Santa Anita Dam Rise Four Feet Tuesday

Sierra Madre witnessed a heavy influx of hikers over the weekend. The Wilson and Sturtevant trails remained open during the storm, although the toll road to Mt. Wilson was closed on Thursday of last week. From two to ten feet of snow fell at various points along this trail and drew nearly 1000 hikers. Cars parked at the trail entrance were estimated at 300.

Forest Ranger V. P. Vetter Billy Murphy of Hoegee's Camp and Phil Hartman of Orchard Camp report some damage to cabins from falling limbs weighted with snow. Telephone lines to the camps were cut by broken branches. The rush of visitors caused a shortage of supplies which kept pack trains busy.

Mrs. Harry H. Holland, 136 W. Highland, was snowed in at Hoegee's camp on Sunday and was unable to return home until Monday. She reported three feet of snow at the camp. The trail between Sturtevant camp and Mt. Wilson was reported blocked on Sunday.

At Opids camp a fall of 53 inches was reported, the most snow ever recorded at this point. In the "big storm" of 1921, the snow reached a depth of 44 inches.

J. W. Shryock, caretaker at the flood control dam in the Big Santa Anita Canyon, announced 78 feet of water back of the dam on Wednesday. He reported a rise of more than four feet in Tuesday night's storm. Water commenced flowing thru the Little Santa Anita stream channel in Canyon Park early Wednesday afternoon and the season's rain passed the total for the same period last year.

According to Mr. Vedder, the smoking ban has been lifted in the Angeles Forest by Superintendent Mendenhall. Mr. Vetter believes the deer will begin working down from the mountains because of the deep snows, seeking feed in the foothills.

Masons and Stars To Give Valentine Party February 14

The honor of announcing the first Valentine party of the season falls this year to the Masonic Lodge and Eastern Star who will combine their efforts to give a "pot luck" dinner followed by an evening of first-class diversified entertainment, Friday, Feb. 14.

The program of events will include singing, cards (both bridge and 500) and dancing. The Masons will furnish the entertainment while the Stars will provide the dinner. All Masons, Eastern Stars, and friends are cordially invited. The admission price will be fifty cents.

A committee consisting of Mrs. Harriet Buckingham, worthy matron, Mrs. Harold Roberts, associate worthy matron, and Raymond Andrews, worthy patron of the Eastern Star, held a meeting Tuesday evening to work out the details.

No effort will be spared to make this one of the outstanding social events of the year. The Masonic Temple will be decorated in colors and motif appropriate to the occasion of St. Valentine's day.

Furniture Company Given Local Agency For R.C.A. Radiola

The Sierra Madre Furniture Company has just been appointed authorized exclusive dealer of the famous R.C.A. Radiola for Sierra Madre and vicinity.

Tom Tyler, proprietor, states that he is highly pleased to be able to represent such a popular radio and that already considerable interest is being manifested by the Sierra Madre public in the models he has on the floor.

The annual Minnesota picnic for Southern California will be held in Bixby Park, Long Beach, Saturday, January 25. Basket lunch at noon, followed by an interesting program. In case of rain, picnic will be held in Auditorium, same date.

PUBLIC WARNED TO FIND OUT ABOUT SOLDIER SOLICITORS

Officers of the local post of the American Legion issue a warning to the people of Sierra Madre against misrepresentations of men who are going about the country under the guise of ex-service men and trying to work on the sympathy of the public.

Quite often, it is claimed, these men are not ex-service men at all, or they claim to represent some service organization without the proper credentials. People who are approached by any of these men are advised to communicate with officers of the Legion to find out if they have established their worthiness. Phone Roy Picket, commander, Blue 64, or Ralph Stewart, acting adjutant, Main 248.

Hold-up Man Grabs Purse And Gets $20

Canyon Park Woman Victim of Burglar Who Awaits Her Return

Even Sierra Madre is not immune from burglars and stick-up men, it seems. Mrs. Laura Randolph, 525 Brookside Lane (Canyon Park) realizes this, but the lesson cost her $20.

Wednesday night Mrs. Randolph left her home about 8 o'clock and left the light burning on the front porch. When she returned about 10:30, she saw a man standing on the porch, and thinking he was a prospective tenant for one of the cabins she rents, Mrs. Randolph did not hesitate to approach him.

"I want some money" was the unexpected greeting of the visitor as he grabbed for the purse that she was carrying, and Mrs. Randolph did not offer resistance. He took out a $20 bill and threw the purse on the table on the porch. As he walked away, he stated that he would appreciate it if she would not make any noise about the matter.

When Mrs. Randolph entered her house she found that the burglar had been all through it but had taken nothing. She did not dare go to a neighbor's house to phone the police until a half hour had passed, and although she gave a good description of the man, Officers Scott and Richards could find no trace of him. Chief McMillan checked the hotels but could find no clue.

The mid-winter picnic of the South Dakota Society will be held Sunday, Jan. 26, in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles. Former residents and visitors from that state are invited to gather with basket lunches, at noon. Hot coffee will be served. A short program under the gavel of Judge C. C. Carpenter, president of the society, will follow the luncheon hour.

J. H. Robertson is spending the week-end at Murieta Hot Springs with a group of friends.

Form New Unit of Girl Reserves for St. Rita's Parish

A new unit of Girl Reserves was organized for the girls of St. Rita's school and parish Friday, Jan. 10. Meetings will be held every Thursday evening at 7:30 in St. Rita's Auditorium. Anyone wishing to join will please communicate with the advisor or president.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Louise Roe, advisor; Miss Helen Ranahan, president; Miss Angela Schneberger, vice president; Miss Thelma Jaeger, secretary; Miss Dorothy Ranahan, treasurer. Committees and chairmen will be appointed later.

The lovely home of Mrs. A. A. Halsey was the scene recently of a beautifully appointed dinner party. A color scheme of red and silver was used in decoration. Large poinsettias were arranged in medallion fashion at each end of the table. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lawless, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Young, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shippey, Mrs. Irving W. Adams of Westwood and the hostess, Mrs. Halsey.

Joint Meeting Of Chamber And Council

Will Talk Over Plans for the Upbuilding of Sierra Madre

Meeting Monday Night Is Open to All Persons Interested

A joint meeting of the members of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce and the city council will be held next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the council chamber of the city hall.

The purpose of the get-together informal session is to talk over the best interests of the city and endeavor to map out some feasible program of development for the current year. The chamber of commerce directors are convinced that a spirit of co-operation and harmony is one of the outstanding needs of this community.

Any person is welcome to attend this open meeting, regardless of whether or not he is a member of the chamber of commerce, it is announced.

BUNCO PARTY AT ST. RITA'S AUDITORIUM

St. Rita's Girl Reserves will give a bunco party Tuesday, Jan. 28, 8 p. m., at St. Rita's Auditorium. Beautiful prizes, refreshments, and loads of fun for young and old. Admission 25c.

Hopes of local residents that a new station would be erected in Sierra Madre soon by the Pacific Electric were somewhat dampened today when a crew of men arrived from the city, and began repairing the roof of the building that stands in the center of the business section.

The city council recently agreed to pay half the expense of an underground rest room, in case a new station was erected, but the city is evidently going to be saved this expense for some time to come.

Mrs. Nestor Young recently entertained with a delightful dinner party in honor of Miss Jane Hinkley of Washington, D. C., who spent the vacation at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Hinkley. The guests included Miss Hinkley, Mr. and Mrs. Hinkley, Mrs. A. A. Halsey, Mrs. Irving W. Adams of Westwood and Mr. and Mrs. Young.

Termites Wreak Havoc With Local Business Houses

The warm sunshine following the rain spell Thursday brought out swarms of termites about the downtown buildings, and called attention to the fact that the insects are doing tremendous damage to wood work structures in Sierra Madre.

C. A. Vinton, representing the Termite Control Co., of Los Angeles, happened to be in town that day and he states that he has investigated some buildings here and never has seen such havoc anywhere else as the termites are playing here.

He has promised to bring several inspectors up here on next Thursday, Friday and Saturday to make free inspection of any buildings and to suggest remedies for getting rid of the pests. Anyone desiring to have a building inspected is asked to phone the News Office, Main 260 and leave work.

TAKES VACATION TRIP TO ARIZONA VIA AIR

Miss Azalia Scoville has just returned from a very delightful two weeks vacation, the greater part of which she spent with relatives and friends in Phoenix, Arizona. Miss Scoville made the trip via airplane. Upon her return from Arizona, Miss Scoville motored to San Diego where she spent a few days. Altogether, Miss Scoville had a most enjoyable vacation, she states.

LOCAL BANK STATEMENT SHOWS FINE PROGRESS

The quarterly statement of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank published elsewhere in this issue shows that the local institution is making quite satisfactory progress, according to H. E. Allen, president.

Son of Well Known Jurist Announces His Candidacy

Frederick F. Houser of Alhambra has announced his candidacy on the republican ticket for the office of Assemblyman from the newly created 33rd Assembly district which is composed of Alhambra, Altadena, Arcadia, Duarte, El Monte, Lamanda Park, Monrovia, Monterey Park, Rosemead, San Marino, Sierra Madre, South Pasadena, Temple City and Wilmar. He will run in the August 1930 primaries.

Houser was born in Los Angeles; and has lived in Alhambra for the last 18 years where he was graduated from Garfield Grammar School and the Alhambra High School.

While in High School he participated in numerous activities and was president of the Senior Class and editor of the school paper. He was among the four highest in his class and the recipient of a gold seal in honor of his scholarship.

Upon the establishment of the Alhambra Chapter of the Order of De Molay he was chosen as the first Master Councilor, and was one of the founders and the first president of the Alhambra High School Alumni Association.

He spent four years at the University of California at Los Angeles, where he held many important positions, which culminated in his election to the presidency of the student body. While at college he majored in the subject of political science or government and being the highest man of 450 graduates was chosen as class valedictorian. After his graduation, he attended Harvard Law School for three years, and received the degree of Bachelor of Law. At the same time, by solicitation of the faculty, he taught the subject of government at Harvard University.

Houser is a member of the Alhambra Athletic Club, the San Gabriel Country Club, and the Live Oaks Tennis Club of South Pasadena.

He served for three and a half years as secretary of the Alhambra Republican Club and for two years as a member of the Los Angeles County Central Committee having been elected to that position as the leading candidate of a field of twenty-five.

Houser believes that the major problem confronting Southern California from a political standpoint at the present time is the Congressional and Legislative Reapportionment. He said today: "For many years Southern California has not received its full representation either in the state legislature or in the Congress. We have at last awakened and it seems that in the future the South will present a united front. It is only by standing shoulder to shoulder that we can hope to obtain our just rights."

Calif. Edison Co. Gets Good Buy on Electric Ranges

With more than 25,000 electric ranges already in service over the Southern California Edison Company system, the merchandising department of the Company has stated its 1930 program of activities with a new range offering of more than usual merit, according to Fred Schwartz, district manager.

"We have been fortunate," Mr. Schwartz said, "in securing 39 new Hotpoint electric ranges to be sold immediately in the Monrovia district. These ranges are a part of a large purchase made by the Edison company at an attractive price and the company is now able to offer them to the public at a figure which will represent a substantial saving. Because of the popularity of the ranges, the number made available to each of the thirty-one Edison company districts necessarily was limited."

In offering these ranges to the public the Edison company has inaugurated a special program of newspaper advertising. Mr. Schwartz said. A series of advertisements describing the advantages of the ranges and of cooking by electricity will appear in the newspapers of this district.

In connection with the announcement of the newest range offering, Mr. Schwartz also pointed out that the users of electric ranges on the Edison company system enjoy the advantages of a special low rate of electric service. This rate, in homes where an electric range is used, also applies to all other uses of electricity in the household.

"With the increasing interest of our consumers in electric cooking appliances," Mr. Schwartz stated, "we have added to the district organization two trained specialists who will consult with those desiring to look into the possibilities of electric service for cooking and other uses in the home."

Friendship Club Reports Progress During Past Year

The Friendship Club of the Congregational Church held its monthly meeting in the Ladies Parlors Monday evening. Miss Josephine Croft, the new president, presided.

The report of the club, which Miss Croft gave at the annual church meeting of Jan. 8, and which thru some error was omitted in reporting the meeting of that date, was read and it was found that the club has made wonderful progress in the past year.

A social good time in charge of the hostesses, Mrs. Vernon Udell, Mrs. Rudolph Hartman, Mrs. Wm. Hibbs and Miss Jessie Dunning was enjoyed by the 25 guests and members present.

SERMONS ON THE COMMAND- MENTS—CONGREGATION- AL CHURCH NOTES

Last Sunday, Rev. A. O. Pritchard began a series of sermons on the Ten Commandments and their application to our present day.

The first commandment, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me," he put in a positive form:
"Thou shalt give Me first place."

This is to be taken as a principle of action in the moral order as truly as physical laws are to be taken as principles of action in constructing bridges or roads.

To achieve true growth we must put God first. The speaker emphasized that we must put away all idea of God's goodness, being according to favoritism or pull.

"God plays no favorites." If we work according to his plan we will work with us; if we disregard His plan we cannot expect Him to change rules for our benefit.

"Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap" applies as truly to a seed of courage as to a seed of corn.

Next Sunday Mr. Pritchard will preach on the Second Commandment. Next week is to be a week of world-fellowship at the Church. On Tuesday at the Woman's luncheon, Miss Lucille Day will speak on her "Experience As a Prisoner of the Turks." Miss Day was one of the teachers at Brousa who were arrested for teaching the Bible.

On Wednesday evening at the mid-week service Mrs. J. L.
Hooper, who has been a high school teacher for several years in the Philippines, will give some of her experiences in this American dependency.

ADVERTISING OUR COMMUNITY

A RECENT national survey shows that for 1929 a total of more than five million dollars was invested in community advertising budgets by 123 United States communities, according to Don Thomas, executive secretary of the All-Year Club of Southern California, who addressed the state convention of newspaper publishers at Long Beach last Friday.

Mr. Thomas described newspapers as "spark-plugs for immediate action in all departments of the nation's commerce." Of the five million appropriated for community advertising, more than 50 per cent was spent for advertising in the newspapers.

California's newspaper advertising in the east crystallizes the desire of thousands to spend a vacation here into definite action, so more than 1,000,000 persons come here annually on pleasure trips. Without the stimulus of the advertising and helpful follow-up material to inquirers, the majority of these money-spending visitors would stay home or go where other advertising invited them.

"For a community to expect that the business interests of other communities throughout the world should pay for its exploitation program by conducting it through the medium of a so-called 'free-publicity' campaign is a reasoning repugnant to our national sense of business ethics. At best 'free publicity' is a two-edged weapon," Mr. Thomas declared. Newspapers are dedicated to the principle of releasing news. There is more often news interest in something against a community in the national sense than there is in proclaiming a community's virtues."

The speaker urged communities which are desirous of bringing more residents to dwell among them, not to overlook the fact that it is easier to get visitors to locate in a particular place in California after they once are here than it is to induce them to make the trip from some remote section of the country in the first place. There are 160,000 tourists, on the average, in Los Angeles every day of the year, looking around in a vague sort of way without any definite idea as to whether they will stay or where they will locate if they do stay, Mr. Thomas declared.

Thus we have a problem here in Sierra Madre. How can we get the attention of some of these folks of the more desirable sort and convince them that this city is as desirable a place to make their home as we already know it is? That is a question our Chamber of Commerce is constantly working on and the membership will welcome suggestions from anyone.

PASS THE CHEER ALONG!

IN dropping into a certain establishment of this city the other day, the writer was forcibly impressed by the consistently pleasant manner with which one of the clerks greets all customers who give the slightest indication that they would be receptive to such an attitude.

Hundreds of folks each day come in contact with this individual and their hearts are made just a little gladder thereby. In turn, they are influenced to radiate that cheer to others and so the slight ripple in the pool of life in this community spreads and spreads to goodness knows where!

On the other hand, just imagine the counteracting effects of your contact with the opposite type of which we also have plenty right here in Sierra Madre. We think concretely of two individuals, a man and a woman. The former is a chronic pessimist. He always says business is "rotten," blames people for not trading with him, and by his very nature tends to drive them away and discredit the town in the eyes of all who meet him. The woman has a heart filled with the bitterest hate against a certain individual in the city and against all forward-looking movements in general. She sows the seeds of doubt and suspicion everywhere, and most any soil is fertile enough to grow that sort of a crop with human nature as frail as it is.

We do not intend to preach, but with the New Year starting in with such a splendid, refreshing rain, wouldn't it be well for us to consider just what effect our attitude toward life has upon others with whom we come in contact daily? A pleasant manner may be cultivated and it is so worth while and costs so little. Just try it one day and see how much better you feel yourself, not to speak of the effect on the other fellow!

The Glad Column

By EARL MOYER
Member of California and American Gladiolus Societies.

I am going to endeavor to place before the readers of the Sierra Madre News a little talk each week, in this column, on the way and whereof one of the prettiest and most popular flowers to-day—the Gladiolus, or, as most of us call it, the GLAD.

We will take up the subject from the origin of the Glad and try to take it by stages from the planting, through the growing season, the digging, storing and caring for, until planting time again.

We will also at some future date take up the matter of Glad diseases and various cures that have come to us from the best authorities in the country.

The subject of fertilizers will be gone into and various articles will be given which will also be excerpts from articles written by well known growers and authorities on the subject.

This series of articles is being written in the hope that I may be able to interest more people in Sierra Madre in the growing of Glads, which will not only help each home in this section, but will make the city of Sierra Madre more beautiful from the standpoint of flowers.

The articles which will appear each week will be condensed write-ups of articles that appear in the official magazine of the American Gladiolus Society. These articles will also be written so that they will be easily understood by the amateur grower who is not interested from the point of commercial growing but rather in making his or her home more attractive by the addition of the beauty that can only be made with flowers.

To those of you who saw the last Glad Show at the Biltmore Hotel, which is an annual show of the California Gladiolus Society, no more need be said, but to those who have never had the thrill of seeing thousands and thousands of these beautiful flowers in wonderful display I want to say that I don't think there is anything prettier. Also when you can go out in your own yard and cut one of two dozen wonderful spikes with very little work to grow them and see them on your table or in the corner of your room, there is a feeling that you have accomplished something that is really worth while and that you have not had to give very much of your time, either.

I should be very glad at any time, if our readers have anything they would like to ask in connection with the Glads, to receive letters or cards with your questions and I will try to answer them right away. If, however, I cannot give you a ready answer I will take the question up at the meeting of the California Society and give you the details in the first issue of the paper after I receive the information.

The first thing that we shall take up is,

WHAT IS A GLADIOLUS?
The flower of the Gladiolus is of a spike. There are 6 to 30 individual florets (flowers) in each spike, depending upon the variety and the size of the corn (bulb) planted. The flower spikes vary also in length and in gracefulness from the stiff formal spike of the grandiflorus type to the slender graceful primulinus hybrids.

It is from the foliage that the Gladiolus receives its name, "Little Sword," which the ancient Romans called the plants which they found growing wild in the fields. Generally speaking, gladioli are not raised from seed for in the course of the development of the flower in the hands of the hybridist the original true breeding forms have become so changed that it is no longer possible to perpetuate a given variety by raising it from seed. The process is also too slow to be profitable as a means of increase.

Correctly speaking, the gladiolus is not a bulbous plant, but a cornaceous one. In other words the so-called bulb is a short, thickened stem composed of a number of lateral buds and usually one terminal or apical bud. Furthermore, the stored food is located in the stem portion and not in the buds themselves. A true bulb is usually considered to be a single bud and the stored food is located in the scale leaves of this bud. The stem portion is almost entirely lacking.

If the terminal bud of the gladiolus corn is injured, other buds will develop and a flower spike will in all probability be produced. In the case of a true bulb, similar injury means the loss of the flower spike.

Like the potato, the corn may be cut in portions and each portion will grow, usually, if a part of the roots are cut with the portion of the bulb. This is a procedure sometimes followed in the case of rare varieties when it is desired to secure a greater number of corns than occur naturally. Little is gained, the long run and the practice is rarely employed.

In large corns and in certain varieties several buds will develop thus producing two or more flower spikes, and many new corns. Primulinus, or the small-headed type varieties are as a general rule more prone to this habit than other types. The age of the corn has also something to do with this point.

If we save the small corns which are termed cornels, we may plant them in the spring and they will eventually grow to be large corns similar to the parent corn. Next fall when you are digging your Glads watch for these small corns. On close observation you will find they are formed on special roots at the base of the new corn. Some are very tiny; others are even as large as half an inch in diameter. It is these small corns that the commercial grower relies for his increase. He carefully saves these cornels, planting them in light, well prepared and thoroughly enriched soil as early as possible in the spring. Sometimes he will soak these cornels in lukewarm water for a week before he plants them. This frequently quickens the early growth and many possibly make a large percentage of them grow.

Cornels have some very annoying habits. Sometimes they will refuse to grow at all, and later grow like weeds. Usually it requires two and possibly three years before a flower spike will be produced from these cornels. Such a flower spike would be similar to the one of the original corn. However, the cornels increase in diameter so that the commercial grower has corns of all sizes, from the small cornels up to full sized corns. Usually these corns are sized and offered for sale in the following grades:

Size 1. 1 1/2 inches and over.
Size 2. 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 inch.
Size 3. 1 to 1 1/4 inch.
Size 4. 3/4 to 1 inch.
Size 5. 1/2 to 3/4 inch.
Size 6. Under 1/2 inch.

Such gradation is not entirely applicable because some varieties, such as Baron Hulot and Los Angeles rarely produce a corn of more than 1 1/2 inches diameter. Other varieties, such as Dewdrop, Gladiolus Boy and many of the Primulinus grandiflorus varieties produce very large corns indeed. The locality in which the corn is grown appears to modify the general size of the stock. Cultural conditions have also an effect, the relatively less marked as a general rule. Corns of 3/4 to 1 1/4 inch diameter are usually referred to as young, while the larger sizes are referred to as mature stock.

Mature corns which have been flowered for a number of years are referred to as old. Old corns are frequently less satisfactory than young stock. Best results seem to come from plump, high-crowned corns of 1 to 1 1/2-inch diameter. Such corns produce one strong flower spike of large quality flowers. Old bulbs are frequently of great diameter but flat and shallow. Such bulbs have a tendency to throw two or more flower spikes of somewhat inferior quality.

With correct management in the garden and storage thru the winter, it is not difficult to maintain the vigor necessary for the production of the large high-quality spikes which we see at the shows and which everyone can grow with a little attention and care.

Next week we will take up the subject as to how the Glad is grown.

Canyon Park Notes

Clive Brook, who was Ruth Chatterton's leading man in "Charming Sinners," is to be seen and heard in support of the Paramount star for the second time when "The Laughing Lady" comes to the Fox Florence for a week's run beginning tomorrow.

In this comedy-drama of society life which deals with wealthy New Yorkers, their foibles and didoes, Miss Chatterton is the wife of a wealthy banker who thinks more of his Wall Street than he does of home sweet home. She becomes the innocent victim of a scandal and the husband divorces her without further ceremony. The subsequent proceedings are alternately humorous, dramatic and romantic.

CANYON PARK
The annual circular letter of the Canyon Improvement Association has been issued during the past week, to residents and property owners of Tract 2456. This association was formed five years ago to promote the best interests of the district. During that period proper flood control work has been completed with the aid of the association; the swimming pool and bath house have been restored and successfully operated last season; work of the paving program is well under way; two Easter sunrise services have been sponsored, as well as a concert in the summer city park series. This year, under the leadership of Mrs. W. B. Corum, the president, a new 20-foot bridge over the flood control channel at Sturtevant Drive is one of the aims of the association. The matter was presented to the city council at a recent meeting. Contributions are asked of lot owners to carry on the good work.

The next regular meeting of the Canyon Improvement Association will be held at Corum's store, Thursday evening, Feb. 6, at 7:45. Property owners and residents are urged to attend. Plans for a circular for Canyon Park will be taken up at this meeting.

Mrs. Josephine Woodward arrived from Kent, Ohio, on Sunday to spend the winter with her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Cox, Vista Circle Drive. Mrs. Woodward reports snow all the way from Ohio. At various points enroute snow shovels were at work to enable trains to pass through the drifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Virgin were dinner guests of Mrs. Virgin's mother, Mrs. Ella A. Cadmus, on Tuesday. Mr. Virgin is now engaged in arranging a speaking tour, from San Diego to Oakland, for Evangelist John E. Brown, who arrived Jan. 4.

The program includes Santa Monica, Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, Hollywood, San Diego, Santa Barbara, San Jose, Oakland and Pasadena, where Mr. Brown will speak chiefly at churches and service clubs, which include Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis. Mr. Brown is turning back again to evangelistic work after two years devoted to field extension work for the schools which bear his name in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Mr. Brown may be heard over radio on Sunday, Jan. 26, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. from KTAB, Oakland.

Miss Martha Reynolds returned home on Monday from Hermosa Beach where she went last Friday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Stratman, her niece, Mrs. Anna Madden, and grand-nephews and niece, Dick, John and Virginia Madden.

Mrs. Myrtle Bradford is spending a month at her cottage "Bellview" on Woodland Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Holger Jensen, portrait sculptors, are moving this week to 454 Rustic Road, Santa Monica Canyon. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen, with their two children, have been residents here at the old club house on Woodland Drive, where they maintained their studio, for the past eight months.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Camp and two children, Eugene Harold and Lois Mae, of Compton, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Norris of Los Angeles, were guests at Cadmus Villa on Wednesday. Mrs. Camp is a niece of Mrs. Cadmus.

Mrs. Henry Burnham entertained at a farewell party Tuesday night at "Annie Laurie" on Brookside Lane, honoring Mr. Burnham who left Thursday morning for Iowa. The evening was spent in bridge, following which refreshments were served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. McQuestion, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Phelps, Mrs. Frances H. Burton, Mrs. D. A. Hawk, Mr. and Mrs. F. Widdis, Mrs. Myrtle Bradford and George Bear.

Woman's Club Notes

The League of Nations and the Orient were the topics of the address given by Chester Rowell at the Dr. Frederick W. Roman Forum on Monday night.

A cordial welcome was extended to the delegates present from other Forums by Mrs. John H. Robertson, the president, following the regular monthly dinner. Twenty-four representatives were in attendance from Pasadena, 19 from Glendale, four from Huntington Park and 18 from the Parliament of Man in Los Angeles.

A brief outline of the aims for the development of his Forums and particularly for the latest one organized here, was given by Dr. Roman. The speaker was presented by him as a member of the Board of Regents of the University of California, a journalist, and traveler with large sympathies and broad outlook on life.

Mr. Rowell, in summing up the accomplishment of the League of Nations to its tenth anniversary just past, reminded his hearers that the League had not ceased to exist when the United States failed to enter. The League now represents two divisions, he said, the fifty-five nations inside, and Turkey, Afghanistan, Russia, Mexico and the United States on the outside. Although we alone of the important nations remain outside the League, now a going concern which was covered upon the world by Woodrow Wilson, we literally take part in all its functions by a back-door process, he said.

Established with a view to prevent war and with five already averted, he pointed to the League as also functioning in problems such as the opium trade of the world, naval disarmament, scientific and cultural contacts, and scourges, improvement in economic and labor conditions and suppression of traffic in women and children.

Germany's entrance to the League, with the welcome given by Minister Briand of France, was cited as an example of tremendous importance for reestablishment of friendly relations between the two countries. What is right everywhere else cannot be wrong here, he said.

Mr. Rowell told of his attendance at the Pan Pacific conference held at Tokio last fall and of its object to establish better conditions in the troubled sections of the Orient.

Japan, with its 65,000,000 people on an island no larger than California, was shown as a great modern country full of the beauty of ancient life, and unable to keep up its food production with the increase in population of 1,000,000 a year. China, with its 400,000,000 people, is just emerging from the middle ages, he said, and is still partly in the middle ages. Following 4000 years of slow growth, China is now moving faster than any other country, he said, with the advent of the railroad, airplane, factories, roads and American educated students. He also touched upon Manchuria, where one of the greatest booms of all times is now in progress. He drew attention to the construction of twenty miles of modern American buildings and of the desire of the Chinese to expel the Japanese here.

Mrs. Frederick S. Ackley, 661 West Central, entertained Mrs. John H. Robertson, president of the club, and members of the executive board on Tuesday. The day was spent in plans for the spring Wistaria Fete and on work of the thousand lavender sachets planned for sale. Mrs. Estelle Fennel, owner of the famous vine where the fete is held yearly, announced the buds already swelling, and predicted an early March blossoming of the vine.

Luncheon was served by the hostess at 1 o'clock. The table was attractively decorated with poinsettias and tall red lighted candles. Favors also carried out the color scheme. Those present were Mrs. John H. Robertson, Mmes. Fred Griebenow, W. H. Wolf, F. K. Miller, Elmer A. Green, Wm. Lees, Estelle Fennel, F. B. Chamberlain, W. R. Humphries, Ethel Davis, Emil Sturthal, Misses Edna R. Green and Laura E. Cadmus, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Hutton and Frederic S. Ackley.

R. D. Cornell of the firm of Cook, Hall and Cornell, landscape architects, will give a talk on landscape gardening illustrated with colored slides taken in Europe, at the afternoon program of the club next Wednesday. These slides were made from Mr. Cornell's own negatives taken while on a trip thru Europe. They show glimpses of gardens and architecture of buildings in England, France, Spain and Italy. The slides are assorted and not limited to any one phase of architecture.

The club was represented at the President's Council in Huntington Park on Wednesday by Mrs. John H. Robertson, president; Miss Edna R. Green, Mrs. Frederic S. Ackley, Mrs. J. M. Campbell, Mrs. Wm. Lees and Mrs. Fred Griebenow.

Work of changing doors at the club house to swing outward is being done this week, in compliance with the new fire ordinance program in charge of Chief W. D. Richards of the fire department. New hardwood flooring is also being laid on the stage.

Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, chairman of the Woman's Club drama section, announces that Gilmor Brown of the Pasadena Playhouse will be present at the breakfast meeting of the section next Monday morning, 10 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. A. A. Halsey. Mmes. J. M. Campbell and Nestor Young will be co-hostesses. Mr. Brown will read "Armoured Train," by Esvold Ivanov, which will have its world premier at the Playhouse late in January.

The Community Service and Garden Section of the Woman's Club will hold a joint meeting at 10 o'clock next Wednesday, in the Osgood room. The meeting will discuss plans for the Wistaria Fete and all interested are urged to attend.

Following the session, the Book Section, under the direction of Mrs. O. B. Manchester, will convene at 11 o'clock.

Owing to inclement weather the regular bridge luncheon scheduled for this week was postponed.

Choose Sierra Madre For Home in Order To Climb Mountains

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zehne, after having lived ten years in Bell, Calif., have moved to 359 West Central, this city. They state that they have chosen Sierra Madre for their home because of its picturesque setting and its proximity to the mountains where they are very fond of hiking.

As an indication that he is the type of a good citizen, one of Mr. Zehne's first acts after getting settled in his new home, was to take out a year's subscription to the Sierra Madre News, the home-town newspaper.

State Insurance Fund Pays Tax

Many know that the State Compensation Insurance Fund is a self-supporting enterprise and not subsidized by the State in any way. However, it is not generally known that the State Compensation Insurance Fund is in the unique position of being one of the largest taxpayers in the State. A check for $181,593 was paid to the state treasurer Dec. 31, 1929, in payment of the fund's premium tax. The fund, in 1928 competition with over 50 companies, wrote over 7 million dollars in premiums and pays the same premium tax as other insurance companies. The State Compensation Insurance Fund not only carries on without aid from the state, but as a large taxpayer contributes to the support of the state.

California Crops Stage "Come-Back"

Total Last Year Is Highest Since 1919, Just After the War

After a decade of fluctuating agricultural income, California last year approached the high standard established during the World War with a total farm return of $553,249,000, according to preliminary figures just released by the Federal-State Co-operative Crop Reporting Service at Sacramento. This total, includes the value of all important crops, and is the highest income received by California farmers since 1919, and exceeds the 1928 total by over $42,000,000.

An analysis of the 1929 crop record in California brings to light some interesting trends in the agricultural progress of the Golden State.

It was found that fruit crops, with the exception of citrus, were far below normal in yield due to heavy frost early in the spring but in spite of the short crop, the income for this class of crops was the highest on record, or $261,454,000. Citrus income dropped somewhat from the past four year level, but deciduous fruits and grapes were higher both in unit value and total income. Walnuts brought $12,268,000.

"The return for field crops was the highest since 1920, totalling $201,268,000. Crops in this classification are increasing in importance, particularly cotton, which assumed fifth place in value in the California crop scheme with a return of $20,540,000 for lint and $2,986,000 for seed. The tame hay, which includes alfalfa, and grain hays, brought the greatest income of any crop in California last year. The crop was valued at $84,919,000, which exceeded the return for oranges by over $5,000,000. Bean prices were very satisfactory, and the crop brought over $25,000,00 to the state.

Pacific Electric Plans Extensive 1930 Improvements

Gloom gossipers will find no solace in the announced expansion program for 1930 of the Pacific Electric Railway.

Exceeding the past year's improvements, during 1930 a total of $2,580,000 will be expended by the Pacific Electric throughout the 1161 miles of the system. D. W. Pontius, President of the railway, announced a few days ago. While not yet fully appropriated to the various items as to show the itemized expenditures the executive stated that equipment, roadbed, overhead, grade separations and power additions would share in the coming twelve month program.

Improvements of some nature are planned for every line on the system, faster service with greater comfort being the objective of the various betterments in contemplation.

"During 1928 and 1929 the Pacific Electric spent more than $5,000,000 new capital for improvements and additions," said Mr. Pontius, "and in 1930 we will spend $2,580,000 to further improve the property and service to the public. The foregoing figures of course represent only new money invested in the property and do not include in any way operating expenses. During 1930 we estimate that our operating expenses will approximate $15,725,000 the bulk of which is spent in wages, taxes and purchases from Southern California industries and merchants."

The Pacific Electric executive stated that the constant expenditure of new capital was indicative of the abiding faith the owners of the property have in Southern California's future and continuous growth and development. Mr. Pontius also pointed out that due to congestion and the attendant slowing down of automobile travel, combined with parking difficulties and hazards of the highways there are indications that there will be a return of patrons to the railway.

The Woman's Society of the Congregational Church will hold their first missionary luncheon of the year in the Social Hall on Tuesday, January 21, at 12:30.

Georgia Puts Ban On "Hitch-Hiking" With a Stiff Fine

Hitch hiking is under ban of law in Athens, the home of the University of Georgia, according to advices reaching the Automobile Club of Southern California. Beginning the first of this year, it is illegal for any person to hail a passing automobilist and ask for ride. It is also against the law for anyone by motion or gesture to indicate to a passing autoist that a lift would be acceptable.

A fine of $25 is provided as punishment for asking for a ride or giving one. This unique law was put into effect when citizens complained that college students had adopted the practice of holding up autoists for lifts to class.

Chevrolet Announces Low Prices

1930 Cars Said to Be "Faster, Smoother, and Better"

"Smoother, Faster, Better!" This tells the story of the new series of 1930 Chevrolet sixes which are now on display in the showrooms of McDonald & O'Boyle, Monrovia and the Central Garage of Sierra Madre.

Proclaimed as the "greatest Chevrolet in Chevrolet's history," the new series includes a sport roadster, sport coupe, standard coupe, phaeton, club sedan, standard sedan and coach.

The 1930 Chevrolet six, with scores of improvements, is the offering Chevrolet Motor Company makes to the new year; an offering made possible by the fact that in 1929 Chevrolet built and sold over a million, three hundred thousand six-cylinder automobiles. This enormous volume production has made possible many savings in the Chevrolet factories, especially in the cost of raw materials and various production processes. In keeping with Chevrolet's policy these improvements represent increased dollar per dollar value with greatly reduced prices in most of the models.

The 1930 Chevrolet six embodies scores of vital improvements which affect phases of comfort, performance, endurance and safety.

Lighter cast-iron pistons, with bronze bushings; new motor head design; fully-enclosed, internal-expanding brakes; four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers; sturdier transmission; heavier clutch—these are typical of the improvements found throughout the design of the car.

Other advancements include a heavier rear axle; larger tires; new self-adjusting spring shackles; new electric gasoline gauge; new non-glare windshield; new instrument panel; new and richer upholstery.

These improvements evidence themselves in the car proper, striking colors add beauty, dignity and smartness to the body lines. To those discriminating buyers who desire a car in the low-priced field—a car which embraces everything that is modern yet powerful and fast—the new Chevrolet is proclaimed by its designers and builders as being the embodiment of all these attributes.

in offering these eight beautiful new models, have been put to full play.

The interior of the car is particularly striking. Upholsteries are richer and more durable. Seats are wider and deeper, with more luxurious cushions. The new non-glare windshield makes driving safer and more pleasant. The new airplane instrument panel carries a convenient grouping of driving controls—and the distinctive new color combinations grace every model.

Chevrolet engineers point out that the four Delco-Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers on all models eliminate road shocks and greatly increase comfort.

They also declare that the improved 50-horsepower six-cylinder motor gives smoother, quieter operation with increased power.

In traffic, the new automotive acceleration pump provides the flashing pick-up which is to be desired so much. And fully-enclosed, internal expanding weather proof brakes assures positive brake action at all times.

New, larger, full-balloon tires with smaller wheels improve roadability, comfort and appearance.

For night driving the two-beam headlights controlled by a foot-button permit courtesy, without dimming the lights.

And of course all closed models have the distinct Chevrolet feature, the adjustable driver's seat.

Real Estate Active During Month Usually "Dull"

Since the real estate investor's mind is generally remotely removed from the realms of real estate during December, this month is not expected to be productive of any noticeable realty activity. This past December, however, was an exception. Twenty cities throughout the county gave evidence of a fairly active market, using the first eleven months of the year as a basis of comparison, according to the California Title Insurance Co.

Signal Hill, Redondo Beach and South Pasadena showed exceptional activity in December, following the same basis of comparison. Three of the four metropolitan cities of the county, namely, Long Beach, Pasadena, and Glendale, were in the fairly active class, while the Los Angeles City market was somewhat sluggish the past month.

During the last month of this year 19 new subdivisions, totaling 368 lots, were filed in Los Angeles County, making a total of 314 new tracts, embracing 21,102 parcels of land which have been opened to the public, in the county during 1929. Los Angeles City proper counted for 7 new tracts last month, containing 121 parcels, bringing the total number of new subdivisions filed since the first of the year in this city up to 116, with 6690 lots. Since the first of the year one new tract has been opened to the real estate investor in Sierra Madre.

Los Angeles City led all other cities in the County in new subdivision activity for December, while Long Beach was second with the opening of 3 new tracts containing a total of 15 lots. The largest subdivision opened in the county last month was a 60-lot tract near Arcadia. Los Angeles City was second with a new subdivision containing 53 lots.

Life of Wilson Reviewed at Jr. High Assembly

Many sides of the life of Woodrow Wilson which were not known to the students of Woodrow Wilson Junior High were shown by the talk given by Miss Marie Palsue of the Pasadena Junior College in the assembly Friday, January 10.

Miss Palsue took her talk from Josephus Daniel's book on the life of Woodrow Wilson. The assembly was in memory of Woodrow Wilson's birthday, which was on December 28. Miss Ada Lewis sang "The Red Rose," "My Hammock," and "Take Joy Home." Mr. Theo R. Gundry played two violin solos, "Hungarian Dance" and "Elegy," accompanied by Miss Robinson.

The assembly was opened with the singing of "America" and the salute to the flag by the student body. Wilbur Van Gundy, president of the student body, presided.

O.K. BY HER

"Did you know, dear, that tunnel we just passed through was two miles long and cost $12,000,000?" said the young man to his sweetheart.

"Oh, really, did it?" she replied as she started to rearrange her disheveled hair. "Well, it was worth it, wasn't it?"—Boston Transcript.

Mrs. Hinojos, 249 Grove Street, was called away suddenly Thursday morning by news that her mother in Mexico is again critically ill.

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

As was stipulated, an almost 100 per cent attendance at the last meeting. After a rousing business meeting, which followed the usual practice) we were honored by a visit from the city dads, the city clerk and our city attorney. They were each asked to indulge in our semi-monthly feed and by all appearances they were each one very capable at this particular art. Don Hossford was host for the evening and served us with hot tamales and plenty of dessert. Mayor Myers declined to accept the third tamale offered him, as he stated he was just a little off on his eating, but he would take some more cake and coffee. Ralph Stewart gave proof that he is busy in his fire shop and that tire repairing is real manual labor. He proceeded to get on the outside of three tamales, four cakes and four cups of coffee. He reported he slept well.

"Mud" Reavis being a fiend for fried eggs, was denied the eggs, but was satisfied with two tamales and some cake. "Les" Layton said he inherited the habit of eating. He said his mother ate slowly and his dad ate a long time. He "takes" after both of 'em. Bill Lees made an acceptance speech when presented with some food. Mr. Green, city clerk, isn't such a small eater, either. He smiled at number 5 tamale.

Our city engineer was also present and he also partook of the dainties. In fact, he took and took and took. You might think that these fellows that have been mentioned were small eaters, but, oh! oh! how that city attorney guy did eat. Despite the fact that he was "stuffed" he was still able to relate (to the crowd assembled) his experiences in France during his recent visit there on an American Legion mission. Not only that, but he told some good stories and then Louie Karger told one; then Mr. Green told and, and so did several others tell one. It was a good meeting.

The Sierra Madre Fire Department entertained the Forest men Tuesday evening. Bill Murphy and his able assistants cooked the dinner. His assistants were his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Holland. For waiters he was bothered with members of our own department, who, we have learned did very well (considering). Geo. Norris as head waiter, made them all wait. Joe Swanson as second bass, showed speed in places. Harry Peterson did his act mechanically, even so far as to drop some of the tools and lose a nut.

Bob Babbitt piped in and around looking for cracked bowls. He floated a cracker in each soup bowl, from force of habit.

Due to this dinner falling on the same date as the card party at St. Rita's school auditorium, a number of the boys, who anticipated going to the card party were denied this pleasure. However, Louie Karger, Lee Hibbs and Bob Babbitt managed to get there and not one of 'em won a prize.

A number of the boys expect to go to San Gabriel to attend the S.G.V.F.A. meeting being held at that place. These meetings are very educational to fire-fighters and are well worth attending.

Well, we've had a long dry summer and now we have had a nice wet rain. Everybody's happy 'cause the Fire's out!
